The purpose of this memorandum is to commend you for outstanding support to the year-long Intelligence Community personnel study now under way. This Congressionally-directed study, which is being conducted by the National Academy of Public Administration (NAPA), is expected to reach conclusions that will significantly affect all elements of the Intelligence Community. Its successful beginning owes much to the extra effort you made to furnish logistic support to the Community's participants and to the NAPA staff as they organized their work. In providing that support you had to overcome a number of problems that were outside the normal range of your duties. You did so with the highest degree of professionalism and cooperation and set a standard for all of us to emulate.
